Women Speak

Are you concerned about unemployment benefit issues during the coronavirus crisis? We interviewed longtime WRC volunteer and Employment Law attorney Mandy C. Rosenblum (pictured here) about how COVID-19 is affecting unemployment benefits and careers. Please click here to see the full interview. More information from the state of Pennsylvania can be found here, including a useful chart of employment scenarios and benefits. Thank you to Ms. Rosenblum and MLTV-Main Line Network for its broadcast. The interview is part of WRC's local TV series called Women Speak.

Sassy's Blog

Sassy is short for Sassafras, the name of the very astute cat of WRC's Supervisor of Direct Service and Resource Coordination Counselor, Kai Qualls. Sassy has a column in our newsletter called Sassy's Blog, written by Kai from Sassy's perspective. The blog's theme is Kai's specialty: RESILIENCE. It's a very timely topic giving the challenging times we are living through. Sassy's blog this month is on "Cultivating Happiness by Being Present in the Now."

Debbie's Dispatch

During this health and safety crisis, it is important to have resources at your fingertips. WRC wants to add to your list by featuring a resource selected by Helpline Coordinator Debbie Bell in each newsletter, called Debbie's Dispatch.

Featured Resource of the Month
The Pennsylvania SeniorLAW Center

During this time of the Covid-19 crisis that has disproportionately affected the elderly, the Pennsylvania SeniorLAW Center is continuing to provide services even as their offices are closed. They are there to protect seniors who may be preyed on at this time through scams, fraud and illegal lockouts. They can obtain emergency Protection From Abuse orders and help with healthcare decision making when patients do not have their families available to assist them. Their website has a wealth of resources related to Covid-19 and many of their regular services.

The Pennsylvania SeniorLAW Center's mission is to seek justice for older people by using the power of the law and educating and advocating on the local, state and national levels.

Contact the Pennsylvania SeniorLAW Helpline for free and confidential legal services for seniors 60 years or older.
